This column will dissect the art of flirting, offering insights beyond the surface-level.

The Foundation: Understanding Yourself and Your Target

Before launching into the tactics of flirtation, a solid foundation is paramount. Self-awareness is key. Understanding your own strengths and weaknesses, your communication style, and your values empowers you to approach interactions with authenticity.

Identifying Your Ideal Type

What qualities do you find attractive in a woman? Do you appreciate wit, intelligence, a sense of humor, kindness, or perhaps a combination? Defining your ideal type helps you focus your energy and attention on women who resonate with your values and interests. Understanding what you find attractive also helps you tailor your approach to their specific personality.

Recognizing Body Language Cues: Your Silent Language

Nonverbal communication speaks volumes. Pay close attention to your posture, your eye contact, your smile, and your overall demeanor. A confident stance, engaging eye contact, and a genuine smile are crucial components of flirting. Conversely, recognize the subtle cues she may be displaying: prolonged eye contact, a touch of the arm, a laugh at your jokes. These subtle cues are your goldmine.

TABLE 1: Nonverbal Cues and Their Potential Meanings

Cue	Potential Meaning	Example
Extended eye contact, lingering gaze	Interest, attraction	Holding eye contact for a few seconds longer than usual
Smiling, laughing at your jokes	Approving, enjoying your company	A genuine smile that reaches her eyes
Touching your arm or hand, light touch	Comfort level, interest	Gently brushing her arm with yours
Leaning in	Interest, engagement	Leaning slightly forward when talking to her
Fidgeting, looking away	Discomfort, disinterest	Avoiding prolonged eye contact, looking around the room

The Art of the Conversation: From Small Talk to Deeper Connections

Engaging in meaningful conversations is crucial for moving beyond initial interactions.

Beyond the Surface-Level: Building Genuine Interest

Avoid generic small talk and delve into genuine interests. Ask open-ended questions, listen actively, and show genuine curiosity about her perspectives. Ask her about her hobbies, passions, and aspirations. This demonstrates respect and a desire to get to know her beyond surface-level pleasantries.

Subtlety and Humor: The Secret Weapons

Humor is a powerful tool, but it must be appropriate and delivered with grace. A well-timed joke or a witty comment can create a positive atmosphere. Pay attention to her sense of humor, and tailor your jokes to be relatable and funny for her. Subtlety is crucial; avoid making her feel uncomfortable.

Navigating Sensitive Topics: Respect and Boundaries

Respect her boundaries and avoid controversial topics early in the interaction. Conversations are about connection, not about dominating or pushing agendas. Respect her space and time. Gauge the tone of the conversation and know when to redirect or conclude the interaction gracefully.

The Subtle Art of Flirtation: Body

Language and Interaction

Flirtation isn't about overt declarations, but about subtle cues that communicate attraction and interest without being aggressive or intrusive.

Mastering Eye Contact and Body Language

Eye contact is important, but don't stare. Maintain appropriate eye contact, allowing for moments of connection and warmth, and then subtly breaking away. Mirror her body language to build rapport, but don't overdo it. A relaxed posture and confident demeanor are important.

The Power of Compliments: Genuine and Thoughtful

Compliments should be genuine, specific, and not overly generic. Instead of "You're pretty," try "I love the way you carry yourself." Focus on specific traits or qualities that you admire about her. This shows you're paying attention and appreciate her unique attributes.

Maintaining the Right Pace: Patience and Respect

Patience is key. Don't force the interaction; let it unfold naturally. Respect her space and allow her to reciprocate interest at her own pace. Don't be overly persistent or pushy, as this can be off-putting.

Understanding the Dynamics of Rejection

Rejection is an inevitable part of the process. Embrace it as a learning experience and don't take it personally.

Responding to Rejection with Grace

Rejection is part of the game. Be prepared to gracefully accept a "no" without getting defensive or pursuing the relationship aggressively. Learn from the experience, and move forward.

Learning from Mistakes: Refine Your Approach

Analyze your interactions and identify any areas for improvement. What worked well? What could have been handled differently? Use this feedback to fine-tune your approach and develop a more effective flirting strategy for the future.

Conclusion

Flirtation is an art form, not a science. It requires empathy, understanding, and self-awareness. It's about building connections, not manipulating outcomes. So, you've spotted someone who's caught your eye, and the gears in your head are starting to whirl. You're thinking, "How do I actually flirt with a girl?" It's a question many of us have pondered, standing there with a mix of butterflies and a slight existential dread. But here's the good news: flirting isn't some mystical art reserved for a select few. It's a skill, and like any skill, it can be learned and honed. Think of it as a dance, a playful exchange of signals that can lead to something truly special. Let's dive into the world of how to flirt with a girl, breaking it down into actionable steps that feel natural and, more importantly, authentic to you.

The Foundation: Confidence and

Authenticity

Before we even get to the "how," let's talk about the "why" and the "who." The most effective flirting comes from a place of genuine confidence and being yourself. Trying to be someone you're not is a recipe for awkwardness and usually backfires. Remember, she's interested in the real you, not a manufactured persona.

Believing in Yourself

This is paramount. If you don't believe you're worth getting to know, it's going to be incredibly difficult to convince anyone else. Confidence isn't about being loud or arrogant; it's about being comfortable in your own skin. It's about knowing your worth and radiating that calm assurance. How do you build this confidence? Start small. Acknowledge your positive qualities. Practice self-care. When you feel good about yourself, it shows, and that's incredibly attractive.

Embracing Your Unique Self

What makes you, you? Your quirks, your sense of humor, your passions – these are your superpowers. Don't try to hide them. In fact, lean into them! Sharing what makes you tick is a fantastic way to spark conversation and create a genuine connection. Authenticity is the bedrock of any successful relationship, romantic or otherwise. So, ditch the generic pick-up lines and let your true personality shine through.

The Art of Approach: Making the First Move

This is often the most intimidating part. The fear of rejection can be paralyzing. But remember, most women appreciate a guy who can approach them respectfully and with a bit of charm. It shows initiative and that you're not afraid to put yourself out there.

Reading the Room (and Her Signals)

Before you even think about approaching, take a moment to observe. Is she engaged in a deep conversation? Does she look stressed or busy? Or is she making eye contact, smiling, and generally appearing open to interaction? Pay attention to her body language. Open posture, smiling, and sustained eye contact are all positive indicators. Conversely, crossed arms, looking away frequently, or a closed-off demeanor might suggest it's not the right time.

The "Opener": What to Say

Forget the cheesy pick-up lines. They're rarely effective and often come across as insincere. Instead, aim for something relevant and situational. Here are some effective opener strategies:

1. Observational Compliment: Instead of a generic "You're beautiful," try something more specific and thoughtful. "I love that book you're reading, it's one of my favorites," or "That's a really unique necklace. Is there a story behind it?" This shows you're observant and interested in more than just her appearance.
2. Situational Remark: Comment on your shared environment.

"This coffee shop has the best lattes, doesn't it?" or "This band is surprisingly good for a Tuesday night." This is low-pressure and opens the door for a natural conversation.

3. Asking a Genuine Question: If you're at an event or a class, ask a question about it. "Have you been to this workshop before?" or "What did you think of the speaker?" This is a great way to initiate a conversation based on a shared experience.

The key is to be natural and not force it. If you feel awkward, it will show. Take a deep breath, smile, and go for it.

Engaging in Conversation: Keeping the Spark Alive

Once you've broken the ice, the real fun begins: the conversation. This is where you get to know her, and she gets to know you. The goal is to create a playful, engaging dialogue that leaves both of you feeling good.

The Power of Active Listening

This is arguably the most crucial skill in flirting and in all relationships. When she's talking, actually listen. Don't just wait for your turn to speak. Ask follow-up questions, nod, and show genuine interest in what she's saying. Reflect back what you've heard to show you're engaged. "So, if I'm understanding correctly, you're saying..." This makes her feel valued and understood, which is incredibly attractive.

Asking Open-Ended Questions

Steer clear of yes/no questions. Opt for questions that encourage her to elaborate and share more about herself. Instead of "Do you like movies?", try "What kind of movies do you enjoy watching and why?" This opens up avenues for deeper discussion and reveals more about her personality and interests.

Sharing About Yourself (Strategically)

While listening is key, you also need to contribute to the conversation. Share interesting anecdotes, your passions, and what makes you excited. However, avoid dominating the conversation or turning it into a monologue about yourself. The goal is a balanced exchange, a back-and-forth rhythm.

Injecting Humor and Playfulness

Laughter is a powerful connector. Don't be afraid to use humor to lighten the mood and show your personality. Tease gently (and respectfully!), share a funny story, or make a witty observation. The key is to be lighthearted and avoid anything that could be misinterpreted as offensive or sarcastic.

Finding Common Ground

As you talk, listen for shared interests, hobbies, or experiences. When you find something you both enjoy, explore it further. This creates an instant connection and provides a natural foundation for future interactions. Discussing shared passions is an excellent way to build rapport.

Non-Verbal Communication: The

Silent Language of Flirting

Flirting isn't just about what you say; it's also about how you say it and the signals you send with your body.

Eye Contact: The Window to the Soul (and Attraction)

Maintaining good eye contact is crucial. It conveys confidence, interest, and sincerity. Don't stare intensely, but don't shy away either. Aim for a natural rhythm – look into her eyes when she's speaking and when you're speaking, but also break away occasionally to avoid seeming creepy. A lingering glance or a quick smile while making eye contact can be incredibly effective.

Smiling: Your Secret Weapon

A genuine smile is universally attractive. It makes you appear approachable, friendly, and positive. Smile when you first approach her, when she says something funny, and throughout the conversation. It's a simple yet powerful tool for building rapport.

Body Language: Openness and Engagement

Your posture and movements speak volumes. Keep your body language open and relaxed. Avoid crossing your arms or turning away from her. Lean in slightly when she's speaking to show you're engaged. Mirroring her body language subtly can also create a sense of connection and understanding.

The Art of the Gentle Touch

This is a more advanced technique and requires careful judgment. A light, accidental brush of the arm when laughing, or a gentle touch on the shoulder when emphasizing a point, can be effective. However, always err on the side of caution. If you're unsure, it's best to avoid it. Consent and comfort are paramount, and an unwanted touch can be a major turn-off.

Building Connection and Showing Interest

Flirting is ultimately about building a connection and showing that you're genuinely interested in getting to know her better.

Compliments: Sincere and Specific

As mentioned before, vague compliments can fall flat. Focus on specific, genuine observations. Instead of "You're pretty," try "I really admire your confidence when you're speaking," or "That's a really clever point you made about X." Complimenting her intelligence, wit, or a unique quality is often more impactful than a superficial remark about her appearance.

Showing Genuine Interest in Her Life

Ask about her hobbies, her dreams, her passions, her day. Listen attentively to her answers and ask follow-up questions. This demonstrates that you see her as a whole person, not just someone you're trying to impress. Understanding what makes her tick is a key part of building a lasting connection.

Creating a Sense of Intrigue

Don't reveal everything about yourself at once. Leave a little mystery. Share interesting aspects of your life that pique her curiosity. This can make her want to learn more about you.

Knowing When to Escalate (or Not)

Flirting is a process, and it's important to gauge where you are in that process and what the appropriate next steps are.

Reading Her Signals for Interest

Pay close attention to her responses. Is she reciprocating your flirting? Is she asking you questions? Is she lingering in conversation? If she seems engaged and receptive, you can gradually increase the intensity of your flirting. If she seems hesitant or uncomfortable, dial it back.

Suggesting a Next Step

If the conversation is going well and you feel a connection, consider suggesting a next step. This could be exchanging numbers, suggesting a future coffee date, or asking if she'd like to join you and your friends for something. Be clear and direct, but also respectful of her response.

Gracefully Handling Rejection

Not every attempt at flirting will be successful, and that's okay. If she's not interested, don't take it personally. Be gracious and respectful. A simple "It was nice talking to you" and walking away with your head held high is the best approach. Rejection is a part of life, and how you handle it says a lot about your character.

Common Flirting Mistakes to Avoid

Even with the best intentions, it's easy to stumble. Here are some common pitfalls to steer clear of:

1. Being Too Aggressive or Pushy: This is a surefire way to turn someone off. Respect her boundaries and her pace.
2. Using Generic Pick-Up Lines: As we've discussed, these are rarely effective.
3. Talking Only About Yourself: A conversation is a two-way street.
4. Being Negative or Complaining: No one is attracted to constant negativity.
5. Overdoing the Compliments: Too much can seem insincere or desperate.
6. Not Listening: This is a fundamental flaw in any interaction.
7. Being Inauthentic: Trying to be someone you're not is unsustainable and transparent.

Conclusion: Practice Makes Perfect

Learning how to flirt with a girl is a journey, not a destination. It takes practice, self-awareness, and a willingness to put yourself out there. The most important thing is to be genuine, respectful, and have fun with it. Focus on building a real connection, showing your personality, and appreciating the unique qualities of the person you're interacting with. So, take a deep breath, a genuine smile, and step forward. You've got this!

How to Flirt with a Girl: Mastering the Art of Connection Flirting with a girl is more than just playful gestures or clever quips—it's a genuine way to build rapport, express interest, and create meaningful connections. At its core, flirting is about confidence, authenticity, and reading the subtle cues of another person. When done with respect and emotional intelligence, it opens doors to deeper conversations and mutual attraction. Understanding how to flirt effectively begins with embracing the principles of sincerity and mutual comfort. A true flirt is not someone who performs a script, but a person who engages with genuine curiosity and warmth. It starts with creating a relaxed atmosphere—maintaining open body language, offering a warm smile, and showing active listening through eye contact and attentive responses. These small but powerful signals communicate respect and interest, laying a foundation for connection. Flirting, in this sense, is less about manipulation and more about shared enjoyment and mutual attraction. One of the most effective ways to flirt is through meaningful conversation. Asking thoughtful questions about her passions, dreams, and experiences invites her to open up, revealing layers of her personality. When she feels truly heard, it naturally fosters attraction. Complementing this with light humor and playful teasing—always with kindness—adds a dynamic and memorable touch. The key is to remain authentic; forced jokes or exaggerated charm rarely last. Instead, let your natural personality shine through, showing vulnerability and curiosity in equal measure. Physical cues also play an important role. Subtle touches, such as a gentle hand on the shoulder or a lingering glance, can deepen the sense of intimacy—provided they feel welcomed and appropriate. Confidence should be evident, but never at the expense of her comfort. A strong, self-assured demeanor signals confidence without arrogance, making her feel respected and drawn to your presence. The benefits of mastering flirting extend beyond romantic pursuits. It enhances emotional intelligence, improves communication skills, and builds self-assurance applicable in many areas of life. When approached ethically and with empathy, flirting becomes a tool for connection rather than conquest. It encourages mutual respect and genuine interest, fostering relationships rooted in trust and authenticity. Looking ahead, the future of flirting lies in emotional awareness and digital adaptability. In virtual interactions, where tone and presence are more subtle, flirting evolves through thoughtful texting, empathetic emojis, and intentional pauses that convey presence. As societal values shift toward equality and mutual respect, the most impactful flirting will remain grounded in kindness, active listening, and authentic expression. Ultimately, flirting with a girl is about forming a real connection—one handshake, smile, or kind word at a time. It's not about perfection, but presence. When approached with sincerity and respect, flirting becomes a beautiful expression of human connection, opening the door to relationships built on mutual enjoyment and shared understanding.

Mastering the Art of Connection: How to

Flirt with a Girl Effectively

Flirting, at its core, isn't about manipulation or rehearsing cheesy pickup lines. It's a nuanced dance of communication, a way to signal interest, gauge reciprocation, and build a genuine connection with someone you find attractive. For many, the prospect of flirting can be daunting, conjuring images of awkward silences and missed signals. But fear not! This in-depth guide will demystify the art of flirting with a girl, providing you with the tools and confidence to navigate these interactions with grace and authenticity. We'll explore the foundational principles, practical techniques, and the crucial mindset shifts that will elevate your flirting game.

Understanding the Fundamentals of Flirting

Before diving into specific tactics, it's vital to grasp the underlying philosophy of effective flirting. It's about more than just saying the right things; it's about projecting a positive, confident, and approachable persona. The goal is to create a comfortable and enjoyable atmosphere where mutual interest can blossom organically.

Authenticity: The Cornerstone of

Genuine Connection

Trying to be someone you're not is a recipe for disaster. Genuine flirting stems from being comfortable in your own skin and expressing your interest in a way that feels natural to you. Don't force a persona; let your true personality shine through.

Authenticity builds trust and makes the interaction more meaningful for both parties. When you're genuine, your confidence is more believable, and your interactions feel less like a performance and more like a real human connection.

Respect: The Non-Negotiable Element

Flirting should always be respectful. This means paying attention to her cues, respecting her boundaries, and never making her feel uncomfortable or pressured. If she's not responding positively, or if she signals disinterest, it's crucial to back off gracefully. True charm lies in making someone feel good about themselves, not in making them feel objectified or scrutinized. Understanding consent, even in subtle social interactions, is paramount.

Confidence: More Attractive Than You Think

Confidence is incredibly attractive. This doesn't mean being arrogant or boastful, but rather exuding a self-assuredness that comes from knowing your worth. Practice good posture, make eye contact, and speak clearly. When you believe in yourself, it's contagious and makes you more appealing to others. Confidence allows you to initiate conversations and handle potential rejection with resilience.

Playfulness: The Secret Ingredient

Flirting should be fun! Injecting a sense of playfulness into your interactions can lighten the mood, create a sense of excitement, and make you more memorable. This can involve lighthearted teasing, witty banter, and a generally positive and optimistic outlook. Avoid taking yourself too seriously, and encourage her to do the same.

The Art of Initiating Conversation

The first hurdle is often breaking the ice. A well-timed and appropriate opening can set the stage for a positive interaction. The key is to be observant and tailor your approach to the situation.

Observational Openers: Capitalizing on the Environment

Look around you! Is there something interesting happening? A shared observation can be a great way to start a conversation. For example, if you're at a coffee shop, you could comment on the barista's latte art or the unique decor. In a bookstore, you might ask for a recommendation or comment on a book you both seem interested in. This demonstrates that you're present and observant, making you seem more engaged with the world and the person you're speaking to.

Compliments: Sincere and Specific

A genuine compliment can go a long way, but avoid generic or overly sexualized remarks. Focus on something specific that you genuinely admire. It could be her style, her sense of humor, her interesting t-shirt, or something she said. For instance, instead of "You're hot," try "I really like your jacket; it has a unique design." Or, if she's made a witty comment, you could say, "That was a really clever observation." Sincerity is key; forced flattery is easily detected.

Asking Open-Ended Questions: Encouraging Engagement

To keep the conversation flowing, ask questions that require more than a "yes" or "no" answer. These are known as open-ended questions. Instead of "Do you like this party?" try "What's your favorite thing about this party so far?" This encourages her to share her thoughts and feelings, giving you more insight into her personality and interests, and creating more avenues for connection.

Mastering Non-Verbal Communication

Often, what you don't say speaks louder than your words. Non-verbal cues play a massive role in how your flirting is received. Learning to read and use them effectively is crucial.

Eye Contact: The Window to Interest

Making appropriate eye contact is essential for conveying interest. When you're speaking to her, maintain eye contact for a few seconds longer than you normally would. However, avoid staring, which can be intimidating. Break eye contact occasionally by looking slightly to the side or at your surroundings, then re-engage.

This creates a sense of intimacy and shows you're paying attention.

Smiling: The Universal Welcome Sign

A warm, genuine smile is incredibly disarming and inviting. When you first make eye contact, offer a smile. Continue to smile throughout the conversation, especially when she says something amusing or interesting. A smile conveys positivity and approachability, making it easier for her to feel comfortable talking to you.

Body Language: Open and Inviting

Your body language should signal that you're open to interaction. Keep your arms uncrossed, face her directly when you're speaking, and lean in slightly when she's talking. Mirroring her body language subtly can also create a sense of rapport. If she leans in, you might lean in a little too. However, avoid mimicking her too obviously, as this can feel creepy. Standing tall and appearing relaxed are key indicators of confidence.

The Power of Touch: Use with Caution and Consent

Subtle, appropriate touch can escalate flirtation, but it's a delicate area. A light, brief touch on the arm or shoulder during a shared laugh can convey warmth and connection. However, this should only be done when there's a clear positive response and comfort level. Always err on the side of caution, and be mindful of personal space and cultural norms. If you're unsure, it's best to avoid physical touch altogether.

Engaging in Witty Banter and Humour

Humor is a powerful tool for building rapport and creating a fun, memorable interaction. It shows you don't take yourself too seriously and can lighten the mood.

Playful Teasing: Light and Loving

Lighthearted teasing can be a fantastic way to flirt, but it requires a keen sense of judgment. The key is to tease her about something harmless and to do it with a smile and warm tone. Avoid anything that could be perceived as critical or mean-spirited. For example, if she's wearing a funny hat, you might say, "That's a very... interesting hat. Does it come with a special superpower?" The goal is to elicit a playful reaction, not to put her down.

Self-Deprecating Humor: Relatable and Humble

A touch of self-deprecating humor can make you seem more relatable and humble. Joking about your own minor flaws or embarrassing moments can create a sense of shared vulnerability and make you more approachable. For instance, if you stumble a bit, you could laugh it off and say, "My coordination is truly a marvel to behold."

Responding to Her Humor: The Echo of Amusement

When she makes a joke, react with genuine amusement. Laughing at her jokes shows you appreciate her sense of humor and are engaged in the conversation. You can also build on her jokes by adding a witty remark or a related observation. This shows you're not just passively listening but actively participating in the playful exchange.

Reading Her Signals: The Art of Reciprocation

Flirting is a two-way street. It's crucial to be attuned to her responses to gauge whether your advances are welcome.

Positive Signals: Encouraging Signs

Look for signs that she's enjoying the interaction. These include prolonged eye contact, smiling, leaning towards you, laughing at your jokes, asking you questions about yourself, and mirroring your body language. If she's playing along with your teasing and engaging in reciprocal banter, these are strong indicators that she's interested.

Negative Signals: Red Flags to Heed

Conversely, be aware of signals that suggest she's not interested or is uncomfortable. These include avoiding eye contact, turning her body away from you, crossing her arms, giving short, monosyllabic answers, looking around the room frequently, or seeming eager to end the conversation. If you notice these signs, it's time to gracefully disengage.

When to Escalate and When to Retreat

The decision to escalate or retreat depends entirely on her signals. If she's giving positive feedback, you might try a slightly more direct compliment or extend the conversation by suggesting another activity. If she's giving negative feedback, the best course of action is to politely excuse yourself. Respecting her signals is paramount and will earn you more respect in the long run.

Taking the Next Step: Asking for Her Number or a Date

If the flirting has gone well and you're sensing mutual interest, it might be time to take the conversation beyond the initial encounter.

Timing is Everything

Don't rush it. Wait for a natural lull in the conversation when things feel comfortable and positive. Trying to ask for her number when the conversation is dying or when she's clearly distracted can feel forced.

Be Direct and Confident

Once you've decided to ask, be direct and confident. Avoid beating around the bush. Something like, "I've really enjoyed talking to you. I'd love to continue this conversation. Can I get your number?" or "I'd love to take you out for coffee sometime. Are you free next week?" is clear and to the point.

Grace in Rejection

If she says no, accept it with grace and dignity. A simple "No problem, it was still great meeting you" is all that's needed. Avoid becoming defensive or pushy. Your graceful handling of rejection will leave a positive impression, even if it's not the one you hoped for.

Conclusion: The Journey of Connection

Flirting with a girl is a skill that can be learned and refined. It's about genuine connection, respectful engagement, and a touch of playful charisma. By focusing on authenticity, confidence, and actively reading her signals, you can navigate these interactions with greater ease and success. Remember, the ultimate goal isn't just to impress, but to build a genuine connection, and the best way to do that is to be yourself, be present, and be kind.

6	How can I compliment her without sounding cheesy or fake?	Be specific and sincere. Instead of 'You're hot,' try 'I really like your style' or 'That's a really interesting book you're reading.' Focus on something genuine you admire about her personality, intelligence, or unique traits.
7	When is the right time to ask for her number or suggest a date?	When the conversation is flowing well, you're both laughing, and you feel a good connection. It's usually best to suggest a specific, low-pressure activity like grabbing coffee or a drink. A simple 'I've really enjoyed talking to you, would you be open to continuing this conversation over coffee sometime?' works well.
8	What if she gives me short answers or seems uninterested?	Respect her cues. If she's not reciprocating or seems disengaged, it's probably best to politely end the conversation. You could say, 'It was nice meeting you,' and move on. Don't push if the interest isn't there.

9	How can I be more confident when flirting?	Practice! The more you put yourself out there, the more comfortable you'll become. Focus on your strengths, dress well, and remember that rejection isn't personal. Believe in yourself and your ability to connect with others.
10	Should I use social media to flirt, or is it better to do it in person?	In-person flirting is generally more impactful and allows for genuine connection. However, social media can be a good way to initiate contact or follow up. If you do use it, keep it light, respectful, and engaging. Avoid excessive or overly forward messages.
